Caelus var Emreis (1079 - 1135) was the Emperor of Nilgaard from 1100 until his death in 1135. Caelus spent his reign working to stabilize the Empire established by his father. He created the Imperial Treasury and centralized tax collection, oversaw major infrastructure reform and engineering feats and strengthened noble houses by granting titles for military service. Caelus also saw power in using religion as a unifying force and put an emphasis on religious conversions.
